THANKSGIVING AT PAYNE CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH.

Thanksgiving day was fittingly celebrated at Payne Chapel A. M. E. Church. At eleven o'clock in the morning Rev. Flagg preached an able sermon suitable to the occasion. After the services the congregation was invited to remain in the basement where the ladies of the church had a regular Thanksgiving dinner waiting. The entertainment was continued through the evening when a large gathering of young people assembled to spend the hours in social chat. Rev. Flagg has a strong hold on the young people of his congregation, and they all admire him very much. He is doing a great work for the race on the East side.

OLD FOLKS' CONCERT.

One of the most enjoyable performances ever given at Zion Baptist Church was that of the Old Folks' Concert, given Thursday evening, November 28, under the auspices of the married ladies of the church. The church was filled to its seating capacity by an appreciative audience and an interesting program was rendered, the participants being repeatedly cheered. The concert will be repeated at an early date.
